

KIDDO is an artist who has been gathering momentum in recent days.

Since the release of her singles 'Drunk & I Miss You', 'Bang My Head' and a collaboration with Gashi on 'Coming Down' this Scandinavian artist has been putting her undeniable talent to great use.

As one of Sweden's most exciting and creative songwriters - with songwriting credits to her name for artists such as John Newman, Dagny, Yellow Claw and Icona Pop - KIDDO has recently found strong support across playlists worldwide. She has caught the eyes and ears of many tastemakers and peers.

As an artist beyond the studio, KIDDO's creative output extends all the way into the visual arts. Her drawings submerge her music videos and creative content, adding yet another intriguing aspect to her artistic portfolio.

Splitting her time between appearing as her comic character alter ego and as herself for live sessions, KIDDO is something of an enigma, and one that continues to attract attention with her life-affirming energy.
